BLOODY MURDER at THE BARRISTERS

ONE OF THE MOST OUTSTANDING attractions of the year was the now famous mock murder and trial staged by the Barristers, campus group composed of law students.

Planned to perfection and so realistic and startling as to command the attention of neighboring cities, the case and trial will long be remembered by both those who participated and those who were enthralled onlookers.

Club Officers GOODRICH, DONAN and HOL-LERON pose just prior to the "crime."

GOODRICH a speaker of the evening tires
of Chapman's heckling and shoots him, later
claiming self-defense.
(Inset) The culprit escapes.

Horrified spectators rush to body of victim and find him dead.
Officers quickly arrested GOODRICH, who was soon brought to trial.

uable state Witness when he testifies against the self-defence theory

State rests as Prosecutor CHARLES GLAZER exhibited victim's bloody shirt to "widow", JANE DEAN

Judge WILLIAM N. HENSLEY
delivers a lengthy opinion on an objection by the state

Defendent LEWIS GOODRICH takes the stand in his own behalf, being examined by defense counsel

FROM THE OUTSET it was apparent that Coaches Vaughan and Peebles would be faced with numerous difficulties. With an inexperienced squad and a tough nine-game schedule even a mildly successful season seemed remote.

Traveling several hundred miles in all directions only to be administered several defeats failed to discourage the Bulldogs, who improved with each loss.

An inspired team took the field against T. P. I. in our annual Homecoming game, and scoring a complete reversal of form took the game by a score of 6-0, on a pass from Johnson to Cunningham.

After losing a close one to Carson-Newman, the gridmen returned and scored another surprising victory in the Parents Day game against Maryville. Vaughn's punt return of some sixty yards and Miles Christian's eighty-nine yard run featured the 13-0 win.

Hoyal Johnson, one of the greatest line backers ever seen here and Tom Mayberry who became famous for his goal-line stands were named to all-conference posts at the end of the season.

BASKET BALL

WITH PROSPECTS THE BEST in recent years for a successful basket ball team Coach Bob Gerald, Junior law student with a fine coaching career at Lynchburg College, called practice in the new $35,000 gymnasium during first week in December. Three lettermen returned to give Coach Gerald a nucleus around which to build a team for the 13 game schedule.

The hoop-throwers did justice to the first season of play in the gym by winning 7 out of 13 games, a record of which to be justly proud.

Unable to schedule the necessary number of games to qualify in the smoky Mt. Conference race, Cumberland's record cannot be compared with others to see how they rate. Then too, the season closed early so that preparation for the regional tournament could be arranged in the new gym.

Cumberland was the first University to donate the proceedings from an athletic contest to the President's Ball. For this game Coach Gerald's boys played the Celtics, with the outcome in antics being 72 to 70 in favor of the Celtics, of course.

For the season the Bulldog's swished the basket for a total of 603 points to their opponents 564. For the second straight year "Droopy" Edwards led the scoring parade with 158 points. Other members of the team and their points are: Patrick 151, Cenwell 116, Bass 65, Fisher, 38, Robertson 20, St. Charles 6, Carter 5, Lusk 12, Vaughn 9, Freeman 6, Simpkins 4, Pitts 3, Swartzfager 2, Ligon 1.
